

BASEMENT PARKING

Terms & Conditions

All persons entering or using this carpark are bound by these conditions. If you do not agree to these conditions, please leave this carpark with your vehicle within 10 minute of entry (in which case no fee will be charged).

You drive, park or leave your vehicle in this carpark at your own risk.

Lock your vehicle and take your keys and any valuables will you.

We will not accept responsibility for:

1. Any loss or theft of or damage to any vehicle or part of a vehicle or its accessories or contents, or any other property in this carpark or any loss suffered by any person as a result;
2. Any death or injury to any person arising from the use of or entry to this carpark;
3. Any loss, damage or claim arising out of the use of or entry to this carpark, irrespective of whether any of these things arose due to negligence or otherwise, except if, and only to the extent that, these conditions are not permitted or are limited by law.

We may refuse release of a vehicle unless the ticket issued to you on entry to the carpark is presented together with payment of the parking fees, however we will not be responsibility for the unauthorised removal of any vehicle from this carpark. Please take your ticket with you when leaving your car, and keep it safe.

You must:

1. Obey all signs and directors contained in this carpark and any directions given to you by us or by our employees;
2. Park within the boundaries of one bay;
3. Not obstruct other vehicles or access to them;
4. Pay the parking fees set by us from time to time.
